Intercultural Music Therapy Consultation Research

Shared Humanity in Collaborative Theory and Practice

Lisa Margetts, University of Roehampton, UK

Series: Routledge Research in Creative Arts and Expressive Therapies

Drawing on primary research undertaken in a special school in Belarus, this book provides fresh perspectives on supporting the optimisation of relationships between teaching staff and hard-to-reach children with complex needs through learning and experience based in musical interaction, creativity and play. Featuring case studies and practical examples, the book offers an insightful and informative resource for academics, scholars, and post-graduate students in music therapy and music education. Those working in the arts, psychological therapies, and undertaking teacher training will also benefit from this volume.
